Editor Graham Vreeland, of the Frankfort State Journal, accuses us of writing an article in the Lexington Herald in which anger was exhibited against the intelligent type setter for the emasculation of copy, in "puerile words." Never desiring credit for anything, good or bad, that we are not entitled to, we will say for the benefit of the Frankfort man that our side partner, Mr. Enoch Grehan, is the author of those "puerile words" and that he is the kind of an

NO COMPROMISE WITH CRIME

While everybody seems pleased that the case of the Winchester banker, jailed for contempt, has been settled, lawyers say that they do not see how Judge Benton could disregard the plain letter of the law and not bar the self-confessed voter buyers, reported by Mr. Hampton, from holding office or voting.

Dec. 19 last year. Since that time there hasn't been a single case of typhoid in the army. Major Russell states that in the past four years 250,000 persons have been vaccinated without a single death or injurious result.

With this knowledge before them, it will be a greater disgrace than ever for any one to die of typhoid fever. A never failing remedy has been found and suffering humanity can be relieved of one of its greatest ills, which cuts down to many people annually.

This end is at last in sight. The present Congress met in extra session April 7. Except for the special session of the 40th Congress, beginning March 4, 1907, and ending Dec. 2 following, the existing body has already made a record. It is also noteworthy that with the exception of the Wilson-Gorman tariff, the pending tariff bill has been under consideration longer than any other measure of the kind since the Civil War. The McKinley bill, introduced April 10, '90, was passed Sept. 30. The Wilson-Gorman bill, introduced at a regular session Dec. 19, '03, became a law Aug. 13, '94. The Dingley bill, introduced March 15, '97, was disposed of July 21. The Payne Aldrich bill was discussed from March 15, 1909 until Aug. 5. Last night the Senate passed the conference report on the Democratic Tariff Bill 65 to 17. The measure goes back to the House today and is expected to be signed by the President tomorrow. And the consummation of a long desired end will have been accomplished. Congress has devoted some six months to the bill, but it could not have labored to a better purpose. Thank Providence, the end is now in sight!

As chairman of the Committee on the District of Columbia, Congressman Ben Johnson is practically Governor of the District, and he is saving the country a great deal of money, which was formerly extravagantly spent. He has been threatened and criticised, but he keeps on at it. Recently he assailed the official conduct of the corporation counsel of the District in a speech in Congress and yesterday the head of it resigned, showing that Mr. Johnson's investigation of the office has struck pay dirt. There must be something very crooked when a man will resign a $5,000 office under such heavy fire.

A Missouri judge has decided that a wife has the right to use a broomstick on an offending husband. This decision has been somewhat offset by an Ohio judge, who holds that husbands have a right to tie to their wives. If both decisions are good law, erring husbands can save themselves the punishment under the one by invoking the privilege of the other. In other words, they can lie like gentlemen when accused and save themselves from contact with woman's time-honored weapon.

EDITOR T. SANDERS ORR has bought the controlling interest in the Harrodsburg Leader of F. P. James and is now in full control and making a good paper of it. It was formerly the Democrat, then the Republican and Mr. Orr changed the name to the one it now goes by and made it an exponent of Col. Roosevelt's principles. The same type has, therefore, been made to urge the claims of three parties.

THE Louisville papers make a great blarney over the fact that Preacher E. L. Powell will support the Democratic ticket, as he does not like the Progressive party's management against fusion. Is the preacher in politics so important that the mere announcement of his position throws the politicians into conniptions?

A BILL designating the first Sunday in June as "Fathers' Day" was introduced in the House by Representative Moore, of Pennsylvania. We second the motion. Everybody gets something but father. It is time the poor fellow had an inning, for doing all the work and paying all the bills.

Gibson In New Role.

John R. Gibson, of Richmond, candidate for the Daviess Collectorship, appeared in a new role and acquaintances passing through the rotunda in the Capitol stopped, looked in surprise and wondered if he was preparing to go to the lecture field. Mr. Gibson is known for his good nature, and when Major Alfred Judson, formerly of Jackson's Corps of the Confederate Army, appeared with a big flag, which he is dedicating to a movement for universal peace, and asked Mr. Gibson to hold it, that the gentleman willingly complied.

All this happened right in front of a huge picture of Gen. Washington surrendering his commission in the Revolutionary army before the Kentucky legislature. Before the Kentucky legislature realized what was happening he was surrounded by a crowd of earnest women and a few men, with Major Judson in the forefront, and the latter had started on an impressive speech. It does not take very much to attract a crowd under the big dome, and as the words of the veteran rang out, thrown backward and forward by the famous whispering stone, all eyes were on the little band.

Mr. Gibson is tall and imposing, and as he held the mast of the flag strangers stopped and asked in whispers who he was and what he had done. Those who knew Mr. Gibson did not wonder that his face rather had a pained look as he thus unsuspectingly had fame thrust upon him, but he proved equal to the demands, even when some of the overzealous women in the band, pushed forward and fervently kissed the folds of the flag as it was gracefully unfurled in the hands of the Richmond man.

Friends of Mr. Gibson said the incident proved that he was always equal to the occasion, and that he would be right on the job and equal to it if named Collector. — Louisville Post Washington Cor.

CHANGE IN OUR TAX LAWS NEEDED

Constitutional Amendment To Be Voted On In November

EQUITABLE SYSTEM DEMANDED

Last General Assembly Passed an Amendment to the State Constitution Relating to Revenue and Taxation.

Frankfort, Ky., (Special)—The last General Assembly in Kentucky passed an amendment to the State Constitution relating to revenue and taxation with a view of abolishing the antiquated general property tax and substituting a more flexible system known to be more equitable and productive of greater revenue in other states.

The tax commission appointed under another act at the same session made a thorough investigation and reported unanimously in condemnation of the present law and strongly urged the adoption of the amendment by the voters at the November election.

It is a significant fact that since the adoption of the present Constitution in 1891, which provided that "taxes should be uniform on all property," a large volume of personal property has disappeared from the assessors' rolls for the simple reason that such property was taxed out of existence or at least out of sight.

The owner of a bond, for instance, who received 4% interest and was called upon to pay in some instances 2 1/2% or more in taxes either sold his bond or failed to return it for taxation and cash, notes, bonds, stocks in foreign corporations and such like investments are apparently no longer owned by Kentuckians.

Burden of Taxes Transferred. This has had a tendency to transfer the burden of taxation to real estate and other property in sight and is not only unequal but unjust.

The real estate owner has sought to diminish its value and in order to protect himself transfers of property for "one dollar and other valuable considerations" has demoralized the true values and leaves the assessor no guide to follow.

Our citizens have unblushingly omitted such items in their returns for assessment and have felt justified in doing so.

The finances of the state have fallen into confusion and revenue agents and arbitrary boards of so-called "Equalization" have failed to discover such property and secure their assessment.

Under the present law every man is practically his own assessor, and the courts have sustained the practice, as the law permits no other course.

General Property Tax Desirable. Other states have long since recognized the inefficiency of the "General Property Tax," and in these states we see enterprise rewarded and wealth accumulating, while the tendency in Kentucky has been to hide our light and incidentally our taxes for fear of the tax collector's discovery. Our progress has been retarded. Our population diminished and aside from the land owners and some merchants we do not seem to have much wealth left in the state.

Money like water flows along the lines of least resistance, and we throw up a dam, however slight, it will be diverted.

Such a trifling obstacle as taxes, if unequally distributed, may prove to be a barrier of insurmountable proportions, however insignificant it may seem from a casual view. No one desires willingly to become a law breaker, a deceiver or an evader, and yet he must be all of these if he follows the old maxim, "When in Rome you must do as the Romans do."

Is this true? Go look at the assessors' books and see where men who are known to be wealthy get off by paying little or no taxes on personal property assessed by themselves.

Do self respecting men care to follow this example? A shrewd business man may have large investments in bonds and fall to rest for taxation by many well known practices of evasion. He receives the full return on his investment.

A widow or orphan may be left bonds and the estate may have to be settled in court. The revenue agent finds it out and sues for omitted assessments of former years and the assessor puts them on the tax list. The widow or orphan are compelled to pay two or three per cent in taxes and live on the remainder.

Is such a system fair? Taxes, in a free self-governed country, should be the least matter to worry about and yet they can be made so unfair and irksome they drive people away and keep others from coming in. This is happening all the time in Kentucky.

We have a chance to remedy this evil and if disregarded now we will have to wait another five years before it presents itself again. It is a clear duty to vote for this constitutional amendment at the November election and every citizen in the state should vote himself and urge his neighbor to do the same if Kentucky is ever to be dragged out of its lassitude and kept in the front rank of progress, prosperity and peace.

Of Interest To Farmers.

W. P. Kincaid bought Geo. W. Carter's 512 acres of tobacco in the field for $600 and will handle it himself. — Stanford Interior Journal.

W. B. Burton shipped his second car load of stock this season to the Wilson Live Stock Co., of Wilson, N. C., on Wednesday, 12 horses which cost $165 each and 11 mules for which he paid $200 per head. Mr. Geo. D. Robinson shipped a car load of horses and mules, 25 in number, to Cordelle, Ga. The stock cost him from $150 to $245, and included in the lot was a pair of mules purchased of James Peoples for $500. — Lancaster Record.

"Cordy" Mountjoy bought of various parties twelve suckling mare mules at from $100 to $130. Mr. Mountjoy sold eight of the above to L. V. Harkness, the millionaire turfman, for $850. This makes thirty-six hybrids he has sold on the job and equal to it if named Collector. — Louisville Post Washington Cor.

A Suggestion or Two.

A friend handed the editor the following which is worthy of thought: Many persons make complaints from time to time about the water rate, the gas bills and electric bills, etc., and may it not be worth while for the city to have a public inspector to read all meters each month and pay for such service out of the city treasury? By this means the people would know whether they were overcharged for such public conveniences; otherwise it seems to many persons that in order to protect the public interests that all these public utilities should be owned by the city. It is a pertinent question "Why should private corporations fatten at public expense?" The laundry agents and works of this city are in the "laundry trust" and have increased their prices from 25 to 50 per cent the past month. Has the patrons' income increased accordingly? How about a good man for an 'out of the trust' agency for the city and let all the people stand by him, even after honest prices are restored. Who will be this "trust buster"? We are with you, and to stay. — Pro Bono Publico.

Church Notes

Dr. Yennell's meeting at Harrodsburg Christian church continues with unabated interest. More than 75 have united with the church. No time has been set for closing and the meeting is still in progress.

At the Louisville Conference, which met in Campbellsville, it was reported to the body that about 4,000 additions had been made during the year, over half of which was by profession of faith.

Dr. F. W. Hintz, of Danville, will preach the morning service at the First Presbyterian church next Sabbath. He is a most charming preacher and a man who always has a modern and helpful message for the people. The public is cordially invited to hear him.

During the services conducted by Dr. Ogden in this city next week at the Presbyterian church, some splendid music will be rendered by various ladies. On Tuesday night, Miss Wiggins will sing; Wednesday, Miss Bright; on Thursday, Mrs. Hanger, and on Friday Miss Alley.

Next Sabbath is Rally Day at the Presbyterian Sabbath School and a good program will be rendered by the children and a goodly number of new pupils is expected to be enrolled. A class is there for everyone, and every one should be in a class.

Dr. Scanlon delivered his first address on the post Apostolic history of the Christian church, at his mid-week service this week. The series will be continued for about two months, touching different phases of the history and development of the church after the death of the last Apostle.

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY

A SEVEN DAYS' FISHERMAN KING.

By A. W. MACY.

In 1647, when the kingdom of Naples was under the grinding rule of Spain, a fisherman of Sorrento was stung to madness by the indignities offered his wife by Spanish officials, because she had attempted to smuggle a few handfuls of flour. So furious was he that he tore down an edict that had just been posted by the authorities. The whole population, including women and children, rallied around him. Forty years of Spanish oppression had made them frantic. They terrified the victors, realized the soldiers successfully, and killed many of the Spanish residents. They secured a revocation of many obnoxious edicts, the abolishment of oppressive taxes, and full pardon for all who engaged in the insurrection. The fisherman, whose name was Masaniello, was the leader in all this, and he became the idol of the people. He ruled Naples for seven days, but his success seems to have turned his head. He became dictatorial and oppressive, and was put to death by the populace. Hence he is called the Seven Days' King.

Attention

I feel certain there would be fewer mail orders sent out of this town if the folks of this community realized how complete and up to the minute a stock of boys' and men's clothing and furnishings is at their disposal right here in this store.

Most people who order by mail do so under the belief that they are saving money and obtaining the benefit of a wider range of selection.

Every one acknowledges that when conditions are usual, the local merchant who assumes a liberal share of the burden of taxation and is in the forefront of every movement for the town's best interests is entitled to the preference.

Now my friends, the only favor I ask is that you investigate and satisfy yourself as to the correctness of my assertion. For example, I feature that splendid make of hand tailored clothes for young men, the famous "Collegian" line, also the National all wool standard for boys, "WOOLY BOY" Clothes, the "Florsheim Shoe for Men and the "Sil Kid" Shoe for Women.

See the great and pleasing variety of styles and patterns, compare these clothes which represent the utmost in quality, together with my very reasonable prices, with any mail order merchant you wish. Consider that you do not have to wait days or weeks for what you want, neither are you expected to pay for your selection before you see it. Also when any purchase you make here is not satisfactory I consider it a privilege to make it so and with out quibbling or waste of time consumed by correspondence.

Your patronage is solicited entirely on a basis of satisfying value and personal service which is possible only when customer and merchant meet face to face.

I hope you will take advantage of this invitation and put me to the test. Then you will do full justice to yourself in the matter of obtaining the greatest possible value and satisfaction in your clothing purchases.

Yours very truly

Rheumatism and Bright's Disease.

Prof. Budlong was Quickly Relieved of Both Afflictions By Using Rheuma.

If you suffer from any form of Rheumatism, remember that RHEUMA goes to work quickly to remove the cause, not simply to relieve the distress. Many years' use has demonstrated that it goes to the seat of the disease and expels the poisonous matter through the natural channels—the kidneys, bowels, liver and skin.

"For many years I was troubled with Rheumatism, also with Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. I suffered awfully, tried many advertised remedies. After using your truly remarkable preparation RHEUMA, I was fully cured."—Prof. C. J. Budlong, Sound View, Conn. RHEUMA is guaranteed by B. L. Middleton, who sells it for 50 cents a bottle.

Down in Mississippi, a white mob lynched two negroes and then rounded up all the darkies in town and drove them to where the bodies were hanging, warning them of a like fate if their behavior was unsatisfactory.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Pedigo, of Warren county, after a peaceful married life of nearly half a century, had a misunderstanding which ended in a divorce suit. The petition was granted. They lived apart for a while, but neither could stand the separation and they were remarried Tuesday.

Chautauquas.

Farmers Are Delighted With Efforts to Improve Conditions.

That the Farmers' Chautauquas held at several points in this county, have resulted in great good which will increase and multiply, there can be no question. The speeches awakened wide interest and the farmers are determined to profit by them. They also felt the benefit of mingling together in improving social conditions. In their resolution presented by Hon. C. L. Seary, they give "honor to whom honor is due" as follows:

Whereas, we believe that the future of each rural community lies in school improvement, a closer co-operation among the farmers, better roads, a more united church, better agriculture, and anything that tends to the betterment of farm life.

Resolved, that we firmly believe this the most helpful meeting ever held in county, and pledge ourselves to a continuation of the splendid work already begun by the Chautauqua.

Resolved, that we extend our most heartfelt thanks to Mr. J. B. McFerran for his generosity and presence at our meeting. That we also extend our thanks to Dr. J. G. Crabbe, our various committees and all others who helped to make possible this splendid meeting.

We also extend our sincere thanks to the many good housekeepers of the neighborhood who have been so generous in their efforts to make everyone welcome and happy.

Council Increases Members and Mayor's Salary.
The City Council met in regular session last night and increased the salary of Mayor Samuel Rice from $250 to $300 and the pay of the Councilmen from $36 a year to $100. The lot the city sold Coleman Warford for $170 was bought back for $125, it being found that if Mr. Warford built on it it would take a portion of the street. The lot is 14 wide and 170 feet long. Cement pavements were ordered to be made from North street to Main. Some accounts were ordered paid and the meeting adjourned.

Another In Contempt.

David Prewitt Fined and Sent To Jail.

Not profiting by the experience of Banker Hampton, David Prewitt, a large farmer and trader, refused to answer the grand jury of Clark when it asked him if he knew of any money spent in the election. His reply was "only what was told me in confidence." Pressed for source of his information he declined to give it and was hustled before the court, who asked him the question again and on his refusal to answer, he was adjudged in contempt, fined $30 and ordered to jail. He makes no claim that he would incriminate himself, but says he will not reveal confidential information. As an ordinary proposition that high sense of honor would be commensurate. In such a case as this it is the height of absurdity.

Cries Scared Them Off.

Burglars succeeded in getting through the rear to the room occupied by Mr. George Doemas, one of the proprietors of the Paris Restaurant, who sleeps upstairs in the rear of the building, and were trying to break in through his door, when Mr. Doemas awakened and called to his brother. This frightened the thieves away without their getting any of the restaurant man's hard cash. Mr. Doemas wants it known that he has a gun in his room and that unless they want it fired into their vitals, burglars had better seek other pastures.

Seed Wheat.
We have some excellent seed wheat, re-cleaned and ready to sow. This wheat was grown in Madison county by T. E. Baldwin and J. Tevis Cobb. We also have some nice seed wheat grown in Garrard county. Look at our wheat before buying. The Madison Milling Company. 103-3t

Works Like a Furnace At Far Less Cost!

Moore's Air-Tight Heater is built on an entirely different principle than other heaters. It heats like a furnace—by circulation instead of radiation.

It burns hard coal or the cheapest kind of slack and can be run at less than half the cost of other heaters. Furthermore, it heats a much larger space than any other heater on the market. One Moore's Air Tight Heater will keep your entire house comfortable.

Moore's Air-Tight Heater is the cleanest and handiest heater ever made. The Egg Shaped Dome and Hot Air Flue Pipe consume all the gas and all the carbon there is in the coal. There are no cinders and no cinders.

The Air Tight Draft Control enables you to hold a fire from 24 to 48 hours and prevents even the slightest waste of fuel.

Moore's Air Tight Heater is the only heater having a Dust Flue. It prevents the dust and small ashes from collecting on the carpets and furniture by taking them all up the chimney. The Ashpan Apron prevents any ashes from falling on the floor when pan is removed.

All parts are surface ground and fit together air tight. No putty is used in mounting. Nothing but asbestos wicking, which expands and contracts with the heat so that the stove is perfectly air tight under all conditions. Thus it's under your perfect control at all times.

Heats Upstairs and Warms All the Floors!

With Moore's Air Tight Heater the air in the farthest room is heated to the same temperature as the air in the same room as the stove.

Just one of these heaters is all that's necessary to heat your entire house—both upstairs and down. And every floor will be as warm as a furnace would make it.

Just think what this means—one stove that will replace two or even three others, give better results than all combined and cost less to operate than any one.

And these are only a few of the many advantages which Moore's Air Tight Heater can offer you. All nicked parts are of the very highest finish through a process known only to the House of Moore. One polishing keeps it like new for a whole year.

Doctors Use This for Eczema

Dr. Evans, Ex-Commissioner of Health, says: "There is almost no relation between skin diseases and the blood." The skin must be cured through the skin. The serum must be washed out, and so salves have long been found worthless. The most advanced physicians of this country are now agreed on this, and are prescribing a wash of wintergreen, thymol and other ingredients for eczema and all other skin diseases. This compound is known as D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema.

Dr. Holmes, the well known skin specialist writes: "I am convinced that the D.D.D. Prescription is as much a specific for eczema as quinine for malaria. I have been prescribing the D.D.D. remedy for years." It will take away the itch the instant you apply it.

In fact, we are so sure of what D.D.D. will do for you that we will be glad to let you have a $1 bottle on our guarantee that it will cost you nothing unless you find that it does the work.

Now we hear the Autumn calling and her face is wreathed in smiles; and the withering leaves are falling in the quiet forest aisles. Put away your trusty swatter 'mong the trophies in your den, let the carnival of laughter cease till the summer comes again! For the frost is on the pumpkin and the fodder's in the shock, and the drowsy rural pumpkin leaves his couch at three o'clock that he may field go shucking, ere the sun has come across; and the old gray mare is bucking, for her hair is full of frost. Put away the wire screen swatter, let surviving flies remain; for a fellow hadn't oughter have destruction on the brain. Now the pasture are too seddy to support the cows, alas, and the cattle lank and weedy, bawl for predestinated grass, and the hogs are chewing rubbings which in nourishment are rich, and the mule, with futile rubbings, would alleviate the itch. Oh, on all the land and waters coldly gleams the autumn sun. Let us put away our swatters, for the summer's work is done. Let us put away our swatters, till the flies return next spring, when we'll soak their sons and daughters as we caracole and sing!—Walt Mason.

Henry A. Johnston, a business man of L'Anse, Mich., writes: "For years, Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for coughs and colds has been our family medicine. We give it to our children who like it on account of its pleasant taste. It is a safe cure for coughs and colds." It contains no opiates. For sale by all dealers. ad oct

Red Headed Girls to Have Innings.

A dispatch from London says that the red-haired woman will find herself the favorite of fashion this winter. The vogue of the red fox fur is assured, and it is the henna-haired woman who will wear these striking skins with a most telling effect. According to the local fashion expert, quite a new character will be created by the red fox fur this season.

"She will wear white clothes," he says "with a stole and muff of red fox. Her hair will be a deep reddish brown, and her complexion will be delicately tinted to a wild rose pink. A rope of amber beads—and what more gorgeous effect could be obtained!"

The fact that red hair will be the fashion was confirmed by M. Jules Szollosy, court hairdresser. "Red hair will sweep the country. It will be the rage. With the prevailing popularity of the red fox fur henna is the one shade that will look really well this winter," he said. "Coiffures," added M. Szollosy, "will be worn higher and higher." On the whole it looks as if "red head" will be the highest term of flattery this winter.

Reasonable Deduction.

The unconscious humor of country journalism, says William Allen White, is often more amusing than the best effort of the alleged "funny man." According to Mr. White, there once appeared in a Kansas paper the following "personal notice."

"Our prominent townsman, Theodore Monkton, is seriously ill. He is being attended twice a day by Dr. Smith, in consultation with Dr. Morgan. His recovery is in great doubt."

Success.

He worked all day
And he worked all night;
He shattered his nerves
And he ruined his sight;
He scolded his children
And he railed at his wife;
He lost all his friends
And he bartered his life
For a pile in the bank,
And a swell block of bricks—
And he now makes his home
In a hole two by six.

A Faulty Indictment.

A Massachusetts minister was making his first visit to Kentucky several years ago. He had spent the night in a small mountain town where feuds and moonshine still abounded. Engaging in conversation with one of the natives, he said:

"My friend, this is a very bibulous State, I hear."

"Lord," replied the man, "there ain't 25 Bibles in all Kentucky."

The changeable weather of early fall brings on coughs and colds that have a weakening effect on the system, and may become chronic. Use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It has a very soothing and healing effect on the irritated and inflamed air passages, and will help very quickly. It is a well known family medicine that gives results. WHAT AILS STATE OF KENTUCKY

Traveler Ascertained Facts About One Community

CHANGE IN TAX LAWS NEEDED

Why Are 600,000 of Kentucky's People Living in Other States?—A True Story With a Moral—What Do You Think About These Conditions?

A traveler recently, while waiting to change cars at a little town in South-eastern Kentucky, had a conversation with an intelligent business man of the place and ascertained the following facts:

"What is your population?" he asked.

"About two thousand."

"What is your principal industry?"

"We have none, unless stores count."

"Have you no factories?"

"None except a tombstone maker."

"How is your population employed?"

"Well, we have fifty-two stores, nine hotels and restaurants, two newspapers, one laundry, one photograph gallery and two banks."

"You seem to have good railroad facilities."

"Yes, we have railroads running north, south, east and west; twenty-six passenger trains in and out every day and no end of freight trains."

"What does the surrounding country produce?"

"Coal, timber, clay, stone, corn, wheat, tobacco, fruit and vegetables."

"What becomes of all these?"

"They are shipped to different parts of the country."

"Has your town increased in population?"

"Not much in the past twenty-five years."

"How are your young people employed?"

"They mostly drift away and get work in the cities."

"Has it never occurred to you to start a few factories and keep them at home?"

"Yes, it has been tried, and we at one time had a commercial club, whose aim it was to get some factories here, but they couldn't seem to do anything."

"What were the obstacles?"

"Well, some people were induced to come here and found cheap land, cheap fuel, good shipping facilities, but no labor, and some of the inquisitive ones asked about taxes, etc., and nothing came of it."

"What is the trouble with your taxes?"

"Well, you see, we have the general property tax in Kentucky, and when they were about the assessors' lists and found they had to pay taxes about seventy-five different kinds of property, and all at the same rate, they ducked."

"Is this true about the taxes?"

"Well, it is pretty near the facts. The city and county and state and schools all have to be paid here, and if a man starts a factory he has to pay on his machinery, his raw material and finished goods; his cash and accounts, and, of course, on his land and buildings, and a good many other things, including his watch and stockpile, and, if he wants to educate his children, he must pay on the books and piano and his horse and buggy and almost everything but his shirt, and the trouble is, he never knows exactly what his taxes will be. If he omits any of the seventy-five things the legislature could think of, he is sure to be assessed, and the revenue agent who gets a commission on anything he can find, and then there is the county equalization board, which scrutinizes his returns and adds what it likes, and then the state board at Frankfort takes a whack at it and generally raises the whole lot more, and it simply keeps everybody going who has anything to be taxed."

"Why don't you change the tax laws?"

"Well, they put the law relating to revenue and taxation in the state constitution, and it takes five years to effect a change, and it is hard to get the voters to understand the question. The last legislature passed an amendment and it will be voted on at the November (1913) election, and if it is ratified the change will be made."

"If it is in Pennsylvania, and every town in that state as large as yours has a factory of some kind, and many of them several. They employ the young men and women and keep them and the money they earn at home. But here comes my train, and all I can say is, you people should wake up, and if your tax laws are oppressive, change them, and your state will blossom like the rose."

"Well, good-bye, stranger. I intend to vote for the amendment myself, and may be others will do the same. It can't be any worse than the present system, and I surely would like to see some smokestacks looming up in these parts. Farewell."

FROM REPORT OF KENTUCKY TAX REVISION COMMISSION, 1910.

"So long as the state adheres to its present system of taxation fixed by constitutional provisions, it will impose upon its citizens a very serious handicap in the competition with the citizens of other states more favored in their tax laws, and must inevitably lose both desirable population and much needed capital."
